

Standard Manpower Questionnaire.

25X1

1.

2.

3.

4.

5. a. Recruiting Office in Keszthely.

b. Recruiting Office in Gyöer.

6. a. Training as motorized rifleman

b. Training as motorized rifleman

25X1

7. a & b.

25X1

8. a & b. Levante from 1942 to 1945.

9. a. No; those who reported for the paratroopers and the air force were not inducted.

b. All members of the 1929 and 1930 classes from Veszkeny were registered for the draft.

10. a. None of the more than 100 men examined was deferred. Two of the 30 examined men from Dabronc were rejected as unfit.

b. None of the approximately 200 men examined was deferred. One of the 11 examined men from Veszkeny was rejected as unfit.

11. a & b. The 1925 class was the oldest and the 1930 class the youngest on 5 August 1951, the date of desertion.

12. a & b. The sources' class was to be discharged in the fall of 1953.

13. a & b. The 1931 class was scheduled for induction in the fall of 1951.

14. a & b. One officer and five NCOs were in the platoon; according to latest directives, the rank of corporal was included in the NCOs.

15. a & b. The platoon comprised 1 officer, 5 NCOs and 14 EM.

16. a & b.

25X1

SECRET/

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2004/01/28 : CIA-RDP82-00457R009900380002-4

25X1

2

17. a & b. Not applicable.

18. a & b. Unknown.

19. a & b. Not applicable.

25X1

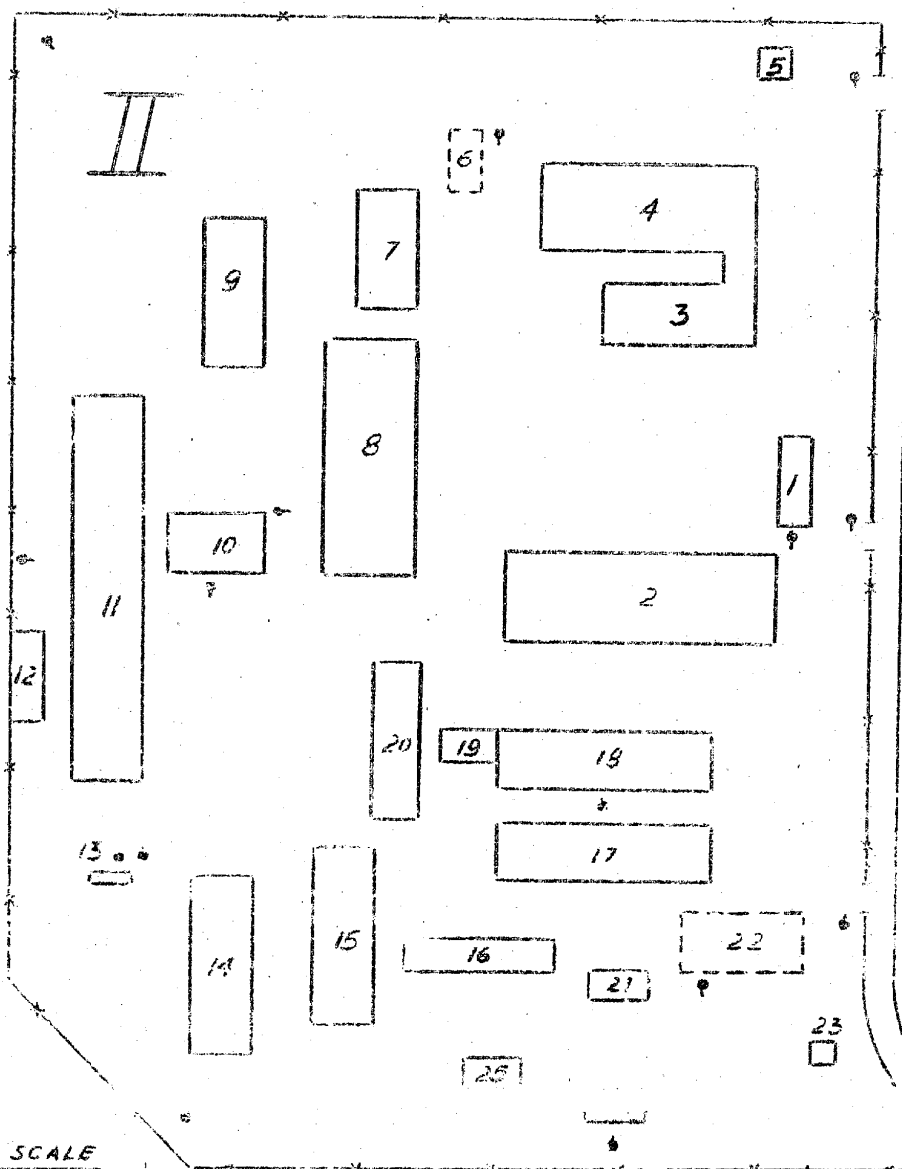

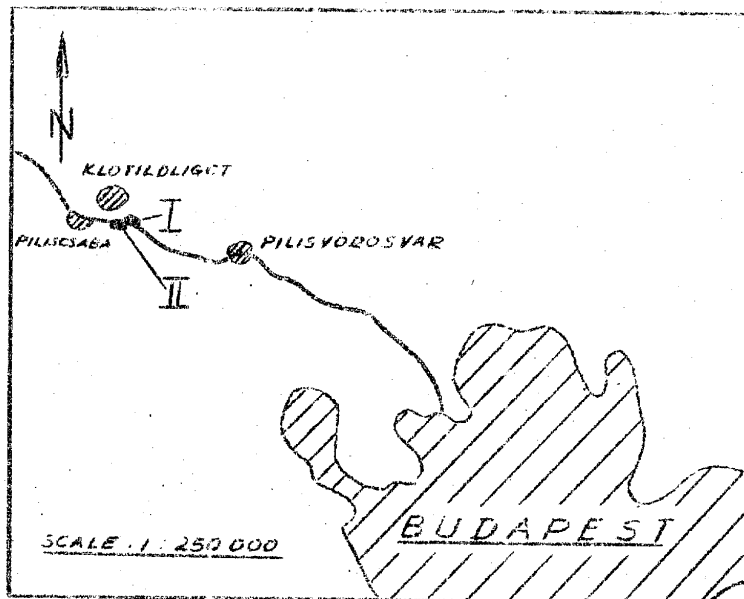

20. a &

21. a.

b.

25X1

SECRET/

Sketch of the South Camp in Piliscsaba

Legend to the Sketch of the South Camp in Piliscsaba.

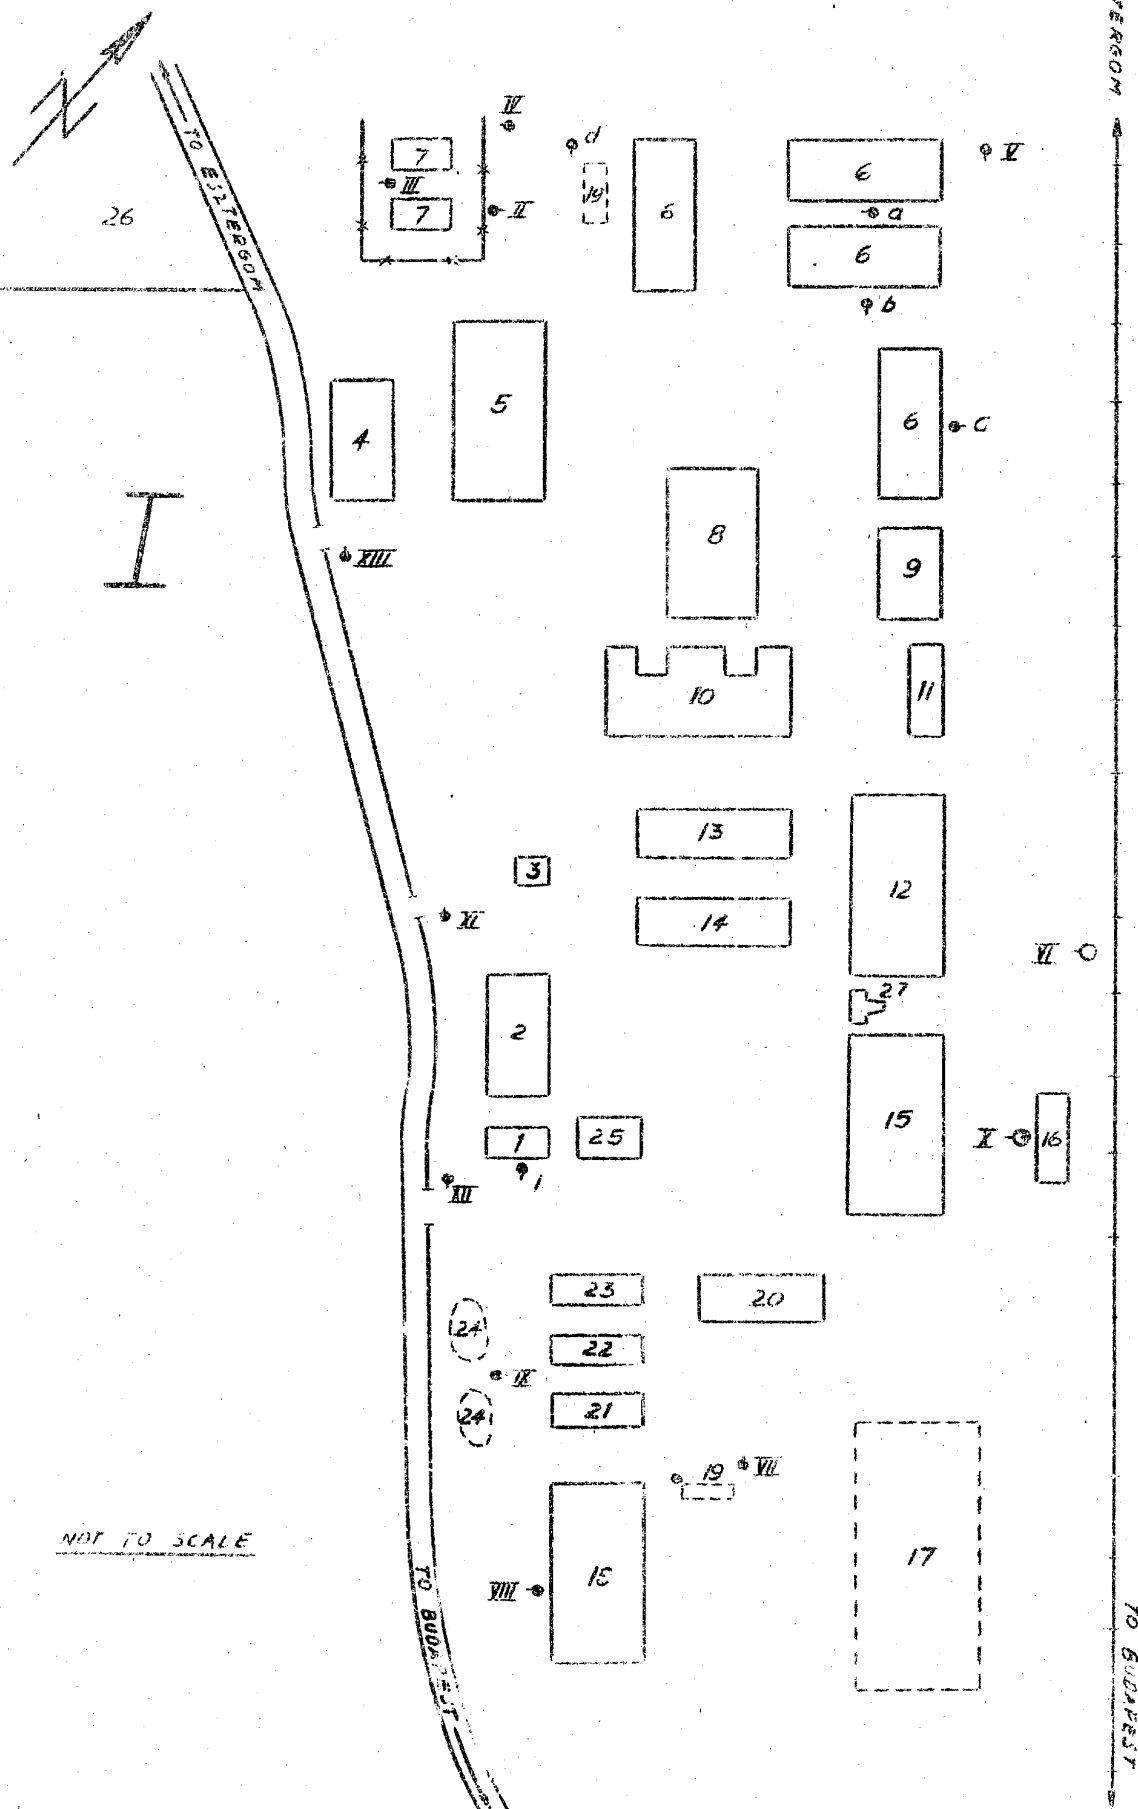

1. Guardhouse, camp headquarters and post office, single story, about 20 x 8 meters.
2. Regimental headquarters and billets of the 1st Bn, three stories, about 60 x 15 meters.
3. Tank classroom and ration storage, one story, about 25 x 10 meters.
4. Billets of the tank battalion, two stories, about 35 x 15 meters.
5. Radio station, single story, about 5 meters square.
6. Coal yard.
7. Billets of the drivers and automobile mechanics of the regimental headquarters, single story, about 20 x 8 meters.
8. RM kitchen and entertainment hall, single story, about 40 x 20 meters.
9. Regimental headquarters and the supply service group, single story, about 20 x 8 meters.
10. Garage, single story, about 20 x 6 meters.
11. Tank storage hall, single story, about 100 x 12 meters.
12. Shoemaker and tailor shop, a single story hut, about 30 x 8 meters.
13. Fuel dump.
14. Artillery ammunition dump, about 30 x 8 meters.
15. Ration supply dump, single story, about 30 x 8 meters.
16. Material storage of the building administration and lubrication storage, single story hut, about 30 x 8 meters.
17. Garage, single story, about 60 x 10 meters.
18. Garage, single story, about 60 x 10 meters.
19. Canteen, single story, about 8 x 4 meters.
20. Hut housing workshops for ordnance and signal equipment, single story, about 30 x 8 meters.
21. Potato storage.
22. Wood storage.
23. A well was being drilled there beside a hut.
24. Underground ammunition dump, about 10 x 5 meters.
25. Gas chamber, single story, about 5 meters square.
26. North Camp.
- Sentry.

The South Camp was also referred to as the Porczel War Barracks.

PAGE 35

LEGEND: SEE next page

ANNEX

Sketch of the North Camp in Piliscaba

Legend to the Sketch of the North Camp in Piliscsaba.

1. Guardhouse with room for the officer on duty and a prison, single story, about 25 x 8 meters.
2. Officers' mess, single story, about 25 x 6 meters.
3. Pump station, single story, about 5 meters square.
4. Empty building, renovated to serve as bachelor officers' billets, single story, about 30 x 8 meters.
5. Bachelor officers' billets, single story, about 40 x 10 meters.
6. Four garages, about 60 x 10 meters.
7. Two single story storehouses with basements, enclosed by barbed wire fences.
8. EM kitchen and entertainment hall, single story, about 40 x 20 meters.
9. Dispensary, single story, about 25 x 10 meters.
10. Billets of the headquarters units: AT company, reconnaissance platoon, mortar battery; single story, about 30 x 20 meters.
11. Signal material storage, single story, about 10 x 6 meters.
12. Headquarters building and EM billets of the 2d Bn, three stories, about 40 x 15 meters; with ordnance and clothing storage in the basement; billets of the battalion headquarters and the machine gun company on the first floor; billets of the battalion headquarters units and the mortar company on the second floor; billets of the rifle company on the third floor.
13. Billets of the regimental headquarters units including the signal company, the 76-mm gun battery and the submachine gun company; single story, about 30 x 10 meters.
14. Motor maintenance classroom and billets of the submachine gun platoon of the 3d Bn; single story, about 30 x 10 meters.
15. EM billets of the 3d Bn, three stories, about 40 x 15 meters; with ordnance and clothing storage in the basement; billets of the machine gun company on the first floor; billets of the mortar company and the signal platoon on the second floor; billets of the rifle company, the AT platoon and elements of the battalion headquarters on the third floor.
16. Headquarters building of the 3d Bn, single story, about 15 x 6 meters.
17. Target range for riflemen.
18. Gun storage shed, single story, about 60 x 12 meters.
19. Fuel dump with about 100 gasoline barrels stored in the open.
20. Single story hut, about 30 x 10 meters, to store the light mortars of the 3d Bn.
21. Single story hut, about 20 x 8 meters, containing the clothing storage.
22. Billets of regimental headquarters units.
23. Billets of a machine gun company.

25X1

SECRET

- 24. Coal depot.
- 25. Empty hut needing repair, about 15 x 10 meters.
- 26. South Camp.
- 27. Monument.

The camp, which was enclosed by a wire fence, was guarded by the following sentries:

- I Barrier with sentry.
- II Sentry at the entrance to the two storehouses of the ammunition dump, which had basements.
- III Sentry at the ammunition dump.
- IV & V Sentries.
- VI Sentry standing guard only at night.
- VII Sentry at the fuel dump.
- VIII Sentry at the gun storage hall.
- IX Sentry at the coal storage area.
- X Sentry at the headquarters building, standing guard from 4 p.m. to 8 a.m.
- XI Sentry at the side entrance.
- XII Sentry at the main entrance.
- XIII Sentry at the officers' entrance.

a, b, c, d Sentries of the detail guarding the garages and accommodated in the guardroom together with the detail guarding the barracks installation.

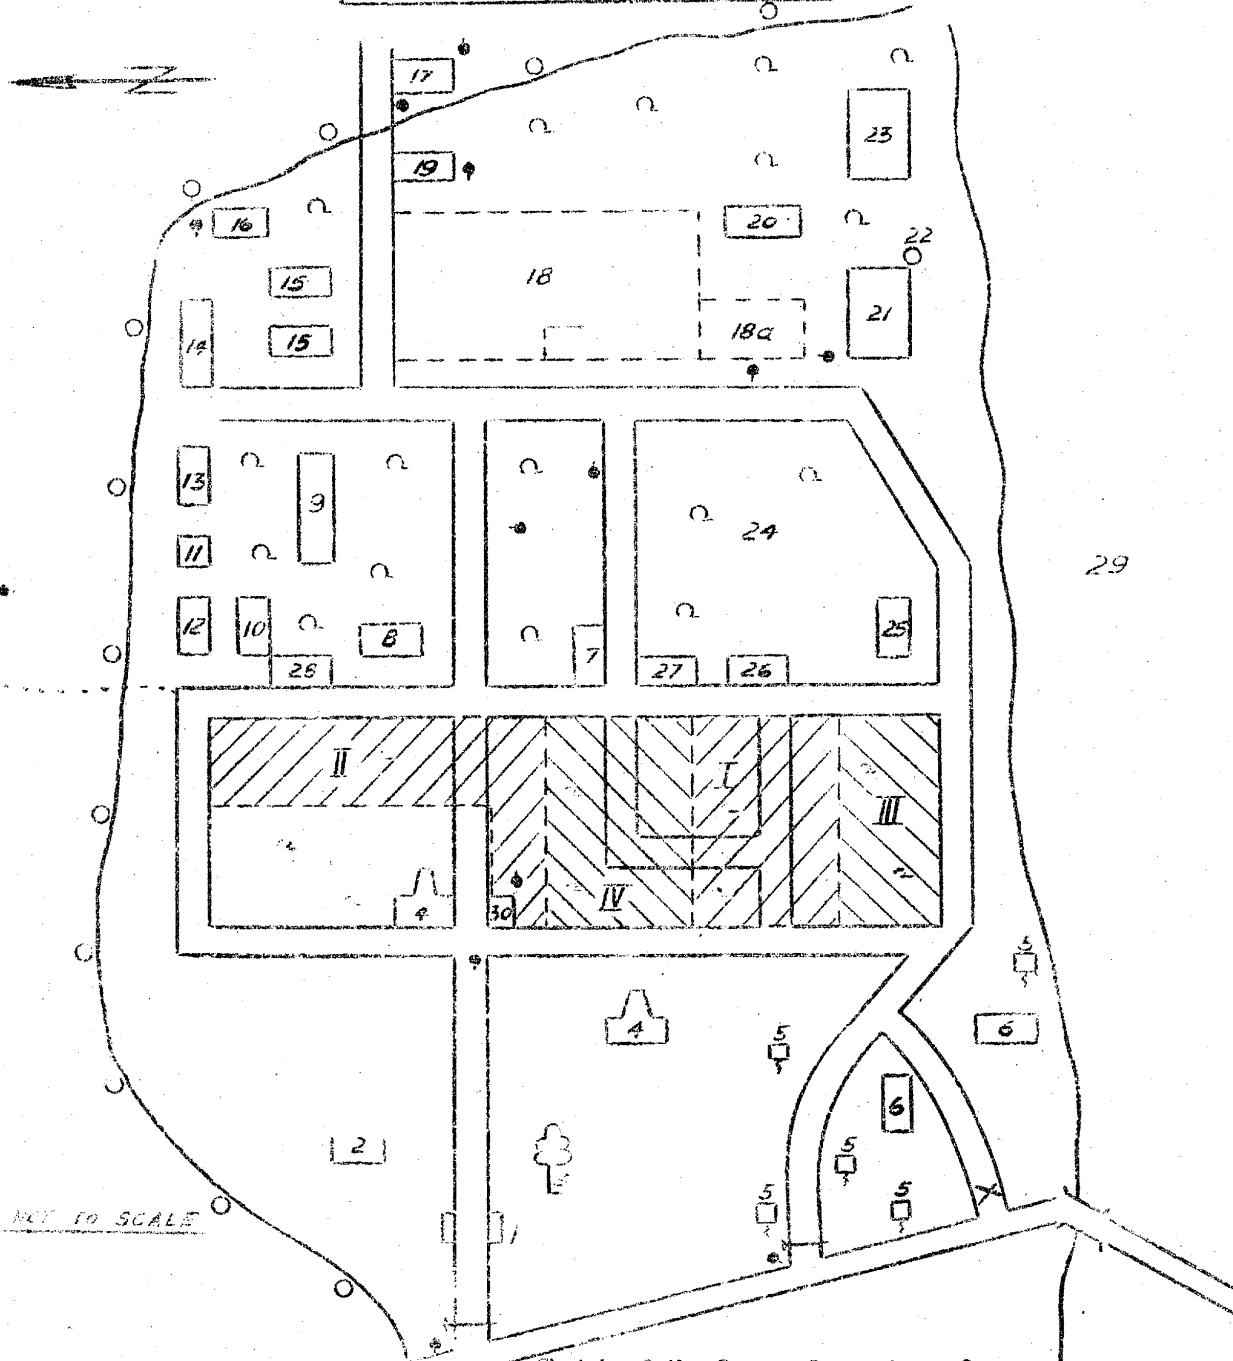

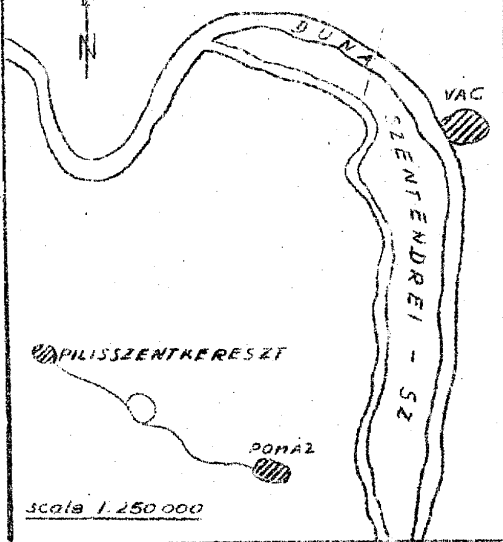

The North Camp was also referred to as Beri-Dalagh Adam Barracks.

25X1

SECRET

LEGEND: see next page.

ANNEA

Sketch of the Summer Camp of the 8th Htz Rifle
Bgt near Pilisszentkereszt

Legend to the Sketch of the Summer Camp of the 8th 'tz Rifle Reg. near Piliszentkereszt.

1. Triumphal arch.
2. Open-air stage and movie theater.
3. Tall tree with an observation post.
4. Monuments.
5. Wells drilled in the spring of 1951.
6. Former barns serving as billets of the automobile mechanics and the waitresses working at the officers' mess and also as a fuel dump.
7. Tent of the regimental commander.
8. Entertainment tent.
9. Small-bore target range.
10. Entertainment tent of the 2d Bn.
11. Barbershop tent.
12. Tents of the engineer platoon.
13. Canteen tent.
14. Tent of the officers' mess.
15. Officers' tents.
16. Tents housing technical material.
17. Ammunition dump.
18. Automobile parking lot.
- 18a Gun storage shed with thatched roof.
19. Fuel dump.
20. Ordnance workshop.
21. Kitchen.
22. Water tower.
23. Dispensary tent.
24. Tents of the regimental headquarters and the supply service group and storage tents.
25. Entertainment tent of the 1st and 3d Bn.
26. Headquarters tent of the 1st Bn.
27. Headquarters tent of the 3d Bn.

25X1

SECRET

- 28. Headquarters tent of the 2d Bn.
 - 29. Camp of the motorized rifle regiment from Aszod.
 - 30. Guard detail and prison tent.
 - 31. Latrine.
 - I Billeting area of the 1st Bn.
 - II Billeting area of the 2d Bn.
 - III Billeting area of the 3d Bn.
 - IV Billeting area of the regimental units.
 - Sentry standing guard 24 hours a day.
 - Barriers.
 - × Barbed-wire barricade.
- The camp was referred to as Beko-Tabor, which means peace camp.

25X1

SECRET
CONF

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(Coat of Arms of the People's Republic of Hungary)

Commemorative Pamphlet on the Taking of the Honved Oath for

"I,

a son of the working Hungarian people, swear that I shall be a soldier loyal to the Hungarian People's Republic and our People's Army.

I shall faithfully do my duty in accordance with the constitution, the laws, and the legal provisions of the People's Republic. I shall obey the orders of my superiors.

I swear that I shall defend my country, the Hungarian People's Republic, against all outer and inner enemies even if I were obliged to sacrifice my own life. I shall never contact the enemy and I shall fight him courageously and bravely at all times. Following the models of our fighters for freedom, I shall enthusiastically lead our banners towards victory.

I shall protect our commanders and shall never desert our banner, my comrades, our armed forces and our weapons. I shall acquire military knowledge. I shall display an exemplary attitude and keep up discipline by all legal means. I shall do my best to care for my subordinates and educate them to be self-confident patriots and fighters for the peoples' freedom.

I shall protect the people's property. I shall observe silence on military and government secrets.

At peace and war, I shall display an attitude worthy of a faithful son of our people. I shall live and die in honor.

Should I violate the military laws or break my oath, I am ready to face the laws of the People's Republic and the contempt of the people."

Excerpt from the Constitution of the Hungarian People's Republic.

Art. 60. It is the honorable duty of every citizen of the Hungarian People's Republic to have performed military duty prescribed by the Universal Military Training enactment.

Art. 61. It is the holy duty of every citizen of the Hungarian People's Republic to defend his country. Pursuant to the legal provisions, high treason, desertion to the enemy, espionage and every reduction of the military power of the state will be severely punished as treason committed against this country and the cause of the working people.

~~SECRET~~

25X1

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~